BUFFALOES TRIM COMMERCE IN THRILLING CHAMPIONSHIP GAME TUESDAY BY SCORE OF 50-33

Fast and Furious Action Characterizes Game From Beginning to End; Buffalo Reserves Show Excellent Defensive Work.

Playing before the largest crowd of the season, the West Texas Buffaloes defeated the Commerce Lions in the first of the championship basketball series here Tuesday night by a score of 51-33. The game was replete with thrills but at the same time took on the aspects of a football game or a gang fight at times.

Coach Burton left Wednesday morning with fifteen men for Commerce where the second game of the series will be played Friday night in the East Texas gym. Should the Buffs lose the second game the deciding game will be played Saturday night there.

The Buffs started the offensive by ringing the basket on the tip-off for the first blood. Commerce evidently came to Canyon with the idea that they had the game sewed up in a sack, for they started off in a sort of "devil-may-care" manner that spelled disaster for their side. Three members of the Stringer family opened the game and the spectators were treated to the spectacle of seeing a highly touted pair in "Big Jim" and M. Stringer, two great basket artists (from eastern observers, of course) whipped to a standstill. The Buffalo defense clicked 100 per cent and their offense was working good—too good, in fact, for the "Pride of the East." There was no time that the game was in doubt so far as the Burtons were concerned and the half ended with the Buffs leading Commerce two to one, or 26-13.

The spectators looked for something to pop when the second half opened, and it did in the shape of

Buffalo Band Will Give Big Old-Time "Nigger Minstrel"

Alone among entertainments of its kind to be given here this year, and for several years past, the Old Time Nigger Minstrel to be staged by the Buffalo Band under the direction of C. E. Strain Thursday night, March 5, will furnish hilarity and fun for all who are boosters of the band or who wish to have an evening of laughter.

The minstrel, which will be the laughter feast of the season, is being presented by the band to raise money to finance its annual tour of the Panhandle towns. The admission will be twenty-five cents (25c) for everyone, and everyone is urged to take advantage of this opportunity to see a good show for a little money.

There are to be from sixteen to eighteen members in the cast, each one of whom has proved to be exquisite material for this kind of entertainment. Two leading roles will be played by Dean Harris M. Cook, and C. W. Batchelder. The songs and choruses and instrumental music of a truly "swell" old time minstrel together with a long list of side-splitting jokes and wisecracks which have mercy on no one in W. T. will make up the program, which will be approximately an hour and a half long.

The curtain will rise and the show will begin at exactly 8:15 p. m., Thursday night, according to the director.

RECREATIONAL SCHOOL TO BE HELD HERE IN MARCH

A letter from Miss Minnie Mae Grubbs, district supervisor of home demonstration work, sets the date for the first Recreational and Dramatics School to be held in the Panhandle on March 9, 10, 11 and 12.

Young, Floyd, Swisher, Hale, Deaf Smith, Randall, Potter and Wheeler counties will have representatives at the school.

The details of the program have not yet been received in Canyon but the four days will be devoted to the training of outstanding men and women for leadership in local communities.

TRADES DAY PROFITABLE TO FARMERS

PRIZES ARE AWARDED BY C. OF C. FOR BEST PRODUCE

Plans Are Going Forward to Make Trades Days of Future Bigger and Better

Butter, eggs, cream and chickens in wholesale lots were brought to town Monday and were delivered to the office of J. B. Elliston, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in competition for the four prizes offered by that organization for the best produce marketed here on that day.

W. H. Lowe was awarded the prize of $2.50 for the pound of butter brought the greatest distance. He traveled 22 miles. Mrs. Rudolph Friemel who brought in a dozen eggs that weighed 33 1-3 ounces, received the prize of $2.50 for the heaviest eggs.

The award of $2.50 for the heaviest chicken went to J. P. Love who entered a Buff Orpington pullet weighing 10 pounds. Mrs. George Nance brought in 18 pounds of cream which tested 58 with 10.4 butter content. She received $2.50 for the highest test cream.

There were many entrants for all of these contests and the exceptionally high grade products gave proof of the ability of Randall county farmers.

It is the earnest desire of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce to make the monthly Trades Day one in which the townspeople and farmers may have an opportunity to display their products to advantage and to co-operate to a mutual advantage. Plans are going forward for the Trades Days of the future and many new and unique devices have been suggested which, it is hoped, will prove profitable to all.

Schools Will Not Be Closed

It has been talked considerably that the school term in the Canyon public schools will be cut one month short this year, and a number have inquired of the school board if this rumor is true. It is our pleasure to say that school will continue through the nine months as usual.

However, we will operate the school under a handicap if the payment of taxes is not better during the remainder of the year than during the month just passed. To those who have not yet paid your 1930 taxes, we ask that you make every effort to do so by May first. If the entire amount cannot be paid, we will be glad if you will pay half, for which you will be issued a temporary receipt. If this can be done, we will be enabled to operate the school for the remainder of the term without any great additional burden on the district.

C. OF C. TO GIVE PRIZES TO PIG CLUB

PREMIUMS TO BE AWARDED ON LARGEST LITTERS

"Pigs Have Proven Profitable to Swine Specialist," Says Upchurch.

Premiums amounting to $50 are to be given to the boys in the Randall County Pig club this year by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, according to W. H. Upchurch, county agent. This premium money will be given on the largest litters of pigs produced in a given time, according to the rules of the Ton Litter contest.

In speaking of the club, Mr. Upchurch said: "Any boy between the ages of 10 and 20, inclusive, is eligible to enter the contest if he owns or can buy a bred gilt or sow to start with. Any responsible boy who does not have a sow to start may purchase one. The Tierra Blanca Hog farm at Canyon has agreed to sell Randall county boys who are enrolled in the pig club a bred gilt, taking the boy's note for the full amount in case he does not have the cash.

"It seems to be generally believed," continued Mr. Upchurch, "that grain will be cheap this year. If this be true, it will certainly be good business to own a few good pigs on farms where skimmed milk is available. It has been clearly demonstrated, according to figures compiled by E. M. Regenbrecht, swine specialist of the Texas A. & M. college, that hogs at $7 per hundred will pay $1.60 for grain fed in combination with the proper protein supplement, counting the protein supplement at $2.75 per hundred. It is hardly expected that grain will sell at $1.60 per hundred this fall."

Those boys who wish to enroll in the pig club should see the county agent on any Saturday at his office in the courthouse.

SUBJECTS FOR LEGISLATIONBy CLYDE W. WARWICK
Representative 123 District.

During this month the Texas Legislature is trying to whip into shape a thousand bills which will be the subject for general debate the last sixty days of this session.

These bills regulate practically every phase of our state's activities. Regulation seems to be the watch word as in other legislatures. However, results so far indicate that economy is prevailing to the extent that new boards and new commissions which would cause additional appropriations are having a hard time to survive in the committee rooms and on the floor of the House and Senate. The general attitude prevails that Texas has as many boards, institutions and departments as the Texas taxpayers are able to support.

Increases in salaries are being frowned upon and most certainly will not be allowed when the general appropriation bill is passed. Furthermore, it is going to be a hard task to secure any new employees in any of the departments or institutions of the state government.

The need of a constitutional convention is seen in the flood of amendments which have been proposed in this session. Every session of the Legislature passed several amendments to the voters for ratification. So far forty-four proposals have been made. Of course, a large per cent of these will fail in the committees or upon vote of the members of the Legislature. If these forty-four proposals were actually submitted to the voters it would cost approximately a million dollars to advertise the proposed changes and to hold elections. It is figured that a constitutional convention would not be much more expensive to the state. Just when a constitutional convention will come about remains to be seen. A proposal may be submitted for this purpose. There are always questions of such political nature existing in the state that the Legislature takes it for granted that the time is inopportune for such a convention and therefore this question may not reach the people during the coming two years for their action.

Forty-seven tax measures have been introduced in this session. Most of these would make levies on various commodities of the state. Back of all of this movement is the one idea that real property is paying too large a per cent for the maintenance of the state government. There are many in the state and in the Legislature who believe that business interests should be taxed to the limit. Texas is primarily an agricultural state. Business and industry is just getting started in development. To pile up unjust taxes upon the business capital at this time would drive out some of the industries which the State now has.

Citizens of the Panhandle are primarily interested in the proposed tax on natural gas. A tax which would have been paid by the land owners was proposed in the 41st Legislature. The proposal this year seeks to place the tax upon the pipelines with a view of securing some revenue for the State on the millions of dollars which will be extracted from Panhandle wells and transported to other States. At the present time much of the gas goes out of the State without Texas receiving any benefit in the way of revenue. Of course, the consumer will pay the tax. He always does, no matter what type of bill is proposed. But in the case of big pipelines the consumer lives in another State and the gas originates within the State's border.

The Legislature is making rapid progress in committee hearings during this second month.

It is remarkable to note the small number of bills actually passed in the first six weeks of this session, but when the large mass of bills passed out or killed by the committee is considered, it will be observed that this Legislature has been a very active one.

Political writers have observed many times that the 42nd Legislature is the most orderly of any session in recent years. During the 41st Legislature there was a continual up-roar; the House was under call a large part of the time owing to the fact that members did not attend the session meetings. The present Legislature has not been under call a single day and the attendance has registered around 130 upon every roll call and probably not more than a dozen members of the House could not have been secured at any one time since the beginning. That is a good omen for the business-like session.

A great deal has been printed in the daily newspapers regarding the discussion of the lobbyist. It is likely that many citizens gain the impression that the Legislature is controlled by lobbyists. This is far from the truth.

It is true that practically all of the big companies have representatives in Austin at all times. These well-trained men in legislative matters, know more about law and more about the effect of proposed legislation than most of the legislators. They study every bill introduced. They know the effect of these bills and are willing to give the benefit of their knowledge to any who seek it. If you wish accurate information on any of these bills, just talk to one of these men. Whether it effects their particular business or not, they can tell you all about the history of the bill and how it would effect the State. Time was when the lobbyist worked in the back alley; today he is very open and frank in his methods. He knows to give misinformation is worse than giving no information at all. Of course, he will present his side of the question if his firm should be interested in the bill but why not? Anyone will fight for his home or for his business. The lobbyist is here to protect his business against any unjust legislation.

The so-called economy bloc was tumbled over when dissension started within its own rank. The emergency appropriation bill passed the House with no changes as to reduction in amounts but with a few changes when amounts were raised. Every member of the Legislature is anxious to see that the appropriations are held down to the very lowest amount. Governor Sterling is advocating such action and will have the hearty accord of all members of the Legislature. It is just the case of the State wishing to procure a dollar's value for every dollar expended.

FARMERS SHORT COURSE DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

COLLEGE STATION.—Dates of the 1931 Farmers' Short Course at Texas A. & M. college have been announced as July 27-August 1, inclusive, by H. H. Williamson, vice director and state agent of the extension service.

Cutting the cost of production to meet the low farm price levels prevailing and short cuts to living at home will feature the programs of this twenty-second annual event, which will follow as a guide to the Texas farm policy of Texas A. & M. college, restated last fall by Prof. T. O. Walton.

Farmers of West Texas to Profit By Census Bill

AUSTIN.—That vast grain and livestock section which has achieved picturesque and distinctive unity under the name "West Texas" would perhaps be the greatest beneficiary of the farm census bill pending in the legislature, according to its sponsors.

It was pointed out that an annual census of natural resources such as is planned would be of special value in the industrial and commercial development of those areas of potential great value as farming and ranching sections. The census would furnish authoritative statistics to railroads planning to penetrate new territory; to flour mills seeking new location; to a hundred other industries whose interests are closely tied to the land.

Texas now has no means of collecting data annually on crop acreage, prospective acreage, production of principal crops, numbers of livestock, and other vital farm and ranch data by counties. Cities in the newer country, seeking to induce businesses to locate with them, must make expensive agricultural surveys, or depend upon the federal census. This census is highly unsatisfactory, as it is taken only every five years and does not keep pace with a country developing as rapidly as West Texas.

Officials of both the state and federal departments of agriculture the University of Texas and Texas A. and M. college are co-operating in seeking enactment of the measure.

Support was drawn from an unexpected quarter when officials of the state department of public health gave the bill their approval, since pertinent health information might be included in the bulletins to be sent out under government frank by the terms of the bill to disseminate agricultural information.

WASHINGTON VOLUMES SOON READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

WASHINGTON, D. C.—President Hoover has written the foreword to the first volume of the Writings of George Washington, the memorial edition which was authorized by a specific act of congress to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

The first volume has been completed and will be ready for distribution in a few weeks, according to the division of information and publication of the George Washington bicentennial commission.

President Hoover, who is chairman of the George Washington bicentennial commission, says in his foreword that "until recently no readable biography of George Washington in reasonable compass made him stand for what he was—the most potent human and intellectual force in a firmament of American intellect."

This is the first volume of the memorial edition which will be of some twenty-five volumes. The work is being edited by Dr. John C. Fitzpatrick for the George Washington bicentennial commission.

The commission, according to President Hoover's statement, has set out to publish a definitive edition of all the written and printed words of George Washington in the form in which they left his hands, including several volumes of general orders, almost the whole of which up to now had remained in manuscript only. Most of his original writings of every kind are fortunately preserved in the library of congress.

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED THREE GIRLS

COLLEGE STATION.—Yreva McClain and Blanche Reeves, fourth-year 4-H club girls of Plainview and Hale Center, Hale county, and Uldene Jones, third-year 4-H club girl of Grand Saline, Smith county, won three $300 college scholarships annually awarded by the State Fair of Texas and the Texas Home Demonstration Club association, according to Miss Bess Edwards, assistant state home demonstration agent in the extension service.

Awards are on the basis of the best records in home demonstration club work for three and four years by girls eligible in age and preparation for freshman college work. There are more than 15,000 4-H club girls in 119 Texas counties.

Local Firms Get Wide Publicity In Retail Magazine

Two local firms, the Thompson Hardware company and the Canyon Supply company have recently received wide-spread publicity through an article published in a recent issue of the Southern Retailer and which was written by Alfonso Johnson, director of the Trade Extension Department of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

In part Mr. Johnson says:

"The small town retailer still has a very definite place in the scheme of affairs if he deserves a place, but if he has not 'gone modern' his day is rapidly fading into the evening twilight which will be followed by an extremely dark night. Whether or not the retailer ever sees the bright dawn of another great and prosperous period depends on his willingness and ability to qualify as a modern merchant."

"This is the firm belief of two merchants in a town of 2,821 people who are only 20 miles, on a hard-surfaced road, from a city of 43,116 that is one of the most alert, progressive cities in the southwest. Being in the shadow of such a city is not such a handicap as most retailers claim, according to these merchants who have built for themselves and their organizations a very secure place in the business world of their trade territory."

T. C. Thompson, president of the Thompson Hardware company, Canyon, Texas, rejoices that he is a neighbor of Amarillo. "Merchants in Amarillo can draw only 2,821 customers from my city if they get every one of them," says Mr. Thompson. "That paved highway runs both ways and I have more than 40,000 people I can appeal to at the other end of the road. Being near a large city is all in my favor. We have hundreds of acres of free parking space in and around Canyon and we have the merchandise at the right prices and I dare any merchant anywhere to beat us on service."

O. N. Gamble, manager of the Canyon City Supply company, has built in the shadow of a larger city a business that has paid in 20 years dividends that total several times the original cost of the stock, and the stock, if it were for sale, would bring four or five times its original par value. He, too has found that Canyon is just as near Amarillo as Amarillo is to Canyon and while he is loud in his praises of Amarillo, that great distributing center of the Panhandle, he insists that Canyon is the greatest business town of its size in the southwest and will show you figures to prove it if you doubt his statement.

"The story of Mr. Thompson's business career from the time he started working as a porter in a hardware store 33 years ago to his present position as president of the Thompson Hardware company and president of the Texas Hardware and Implement association is an inspiration to the ambitious youth and is a very definite affirmative answer to the oft-asked query, 'Is there any chance for the small town merchant to make a big business success?'"

"Mr. Gamble says that there has been more hard work than mystery in building a thriving retail business in Canyon. 'Handling style merchandise, we have had to buy carefully, having enough on hand to give our customers the necessary assortment and yet having our stock small enough to give us the needed turnover,' says Mr. Gamble. 'We have watched our style items and if they did not move when they should we took a markdown and moved them that way.'"

Girls Win Last Basketball Tilt Of 1931 Season

The Canyon girls took the Panhandle girls to defeat Friday night by running up a score of 52 to 28. This game was about the roughest game to be played on the Canyon High court.

The regular lineup started the game and immediately ran up a large score, which grew larger as the game progressed.

There were two substitutions for the Canyon girls; they were: Miller for Lockwood at center, and Greenfield for Wiseman at guard.

Personally, we regret to see by the papers that people are still dropping into cold water through thin ice.

Chapel

For last Thursday's chapel program, the students of C. H. S. were highly entertained by 17 girls from the college Glee Club.

A cantata entitled "The Pipes of Pan," which included the following numbers:

"At Daybreak."

"Pan Awakes the World."

"Sunbeams, Dewdrops, and Cobwebs."

"Noontide at the River."

"The Great Storm."

"Pan's Lament Over the Fallen Oak."

"Night."

EL CIRCULO CASTELLANA

The "El Circulo Castellana" met Tuesday for the second time since the new officers were elected.

Anne Johnson told a story about a Mexican girl, named Faria, who got an American boy into trouble.

Judging from the story, I would advise anyone, especially a boy, to be careful when picking out a Spanish friend.

Nell Slaton told a story about the "Mexican Girls in School," after which George Gaede, the joke of the club, pulled a few wise cracks. We then sang America in español.

We are well pleased with our committee. Several members of the club were heard to say that this was the best program ever given by this club.

Classes

SENIORS

At a regular meeting of the senior class held Wednesday, the entire time was spent on discussion of the annual. Much work has been done on it.

All pictures have been made for the annual. As it is time to begin work on the snapshot page, it was decided that all seniors would meet at the high school Sunday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock and take pictures. Every senior is expected to be there, and many good pictures for the snapshot page should be made.

It is time to start buying the annuals. The contest will last only about two weeks. Buy your annuals now and give your votes to the seniors!

JUNIORS

The junior class met in their usual place Wednesday. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Curtis Bell, and approved.

Plans were made to sell candy and popcorn at the basketball games. A bake sale was planned. When the secretary's report showed the class to be 5 cents in debt, a collection was taken and the debt paid.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomore class meeting opened Wednesday in the usual manner. Some business was discussed and the class seated alphabetically. The motion was made and carried to send flowers to Mr. McDonald. Some discussion was also made on the chapel program which the class is to render soon. The remainder of the period was spent telling jokes.

FRESHMEN

The freshman class met on February 18, 1931, to elect the most popular girl and boy. Wesley Williams was the boy that was elected, and Laura Ferne Brian was the girl.

Mr. Fox, the sponsor, said the class dues would have to be paid, and the selection in the annual for the freshmen would be paid for out of them.

SIX WEEKS EXAMS

At the end of each six weeks' period the teachers see how much of their work and talk has soaked in by giving "little" exams.

Of course the students just love these little messages, for when they are returned, they are distress signals, and never attempt to get out of a test.

One student says, "I've got to stay at home tomorrow morning and work for that physics test," and later, "Gee! it's a good thing I've got a good daily grade to bring this up." So there you are, ladies and gents.

Junior-Senior Tacky Party Is Great Success

The junior class of Canyon High School delightfully entertained the senior class and several members of the faculty with a tacky party Tuesday evening in the grade school gymnasium. There is no doubt that this was the tackiest and the most comical looking group of students that had ever gathered at Canyon High to enjoy a class party.

As soon as all of the guests had arrived, the judging began. Two by two the contestants marched by the judges. The first prize was given to Jimmie Gamewell and Clark Ash; Jimmie with his shirt on backwards, green tie, golf clubs, and tipsy air (believe it or not) which was only the result of his going golf crazy, was by far the tackiest person present. Clark with his natural looks contributed much to this pair. Celestine McGee and Clarence Wooten won the second prize. Celestine McGee was dressed in rose and black. The most striking things about her costume were the bustle which she wore and the hat which resembled a flower garden. Clarence did not fail to contribute to this couple's appearance, for he was no good looking fellow himself. His costume consisted of a green hat, green sweater, red bow tie, short trousers, red stockings, and red ties in his shoes. The third prize was awarded to Marie Tanner and Viva Bell Cox. Marie had on a hat which was worn years ago, a blue waist, a skirt of stars and stripes, a bag which hung on her arm sending off sounds from an alarm clock. Viva Bell wore a red wig, a dotted swiss dress, and shoes which resembled the shoes worn years ago. They certainly did their part in making the party live up to its name.

Wilford Taylor and Bettye Sternberg won the fourth prize. Wilford was dressed in a suit which was worn by him in the fourth grade, a little hat, and a beautiful bouquet of flowers which were artistically arranged on his coat. Bettye looked natural, thus contributing much to the looks of the couple and enabling them to win this prize.

Clubs

The Latin Club met February 16. The minutes were read and the treasurer's report given. The rest of the period was spent in playing a Latin game. The main part of four verbs are placed on a card-board, and the object is to place the personal endings in their correct places.

The Latin Club and the first-year Latin class are glad to welcome Fannie Mae Russell from Hobbs, N. M., as a member.

TYPE HIGH

The press club of Canyon High School had its regular semi-monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon, February 17.

A very interesting program consisting of talks on the Dallas Morning News and the Collier's Magazine were given by Vincent Lockhart and Katye B. Lowe and were enjoyed by everyone present.

The rest of the period was spent as a "lab" period in which the members wrote several articles.

HOME EC

The Home Ec Club meeting was held in its regular place Tuesday, February 17.

The girls gave criticisms of one another as sincerely as possible; and as the girls had all resolved to be sports, there were no hurt feelings apparent.

A program consisting of popular songs and readings was prepared by the chairman, Maxine Middleton. After the programs a round of little discussions was held.

It appears that the Valentine tea has been regretfully called off, but there will be another entertainment soon.

Games of all kinds which were the entertainment for the evening, were started about 8 o'clock.

After delicious refreshments of apples and cookies were served, the guests departed for their homes declaring that they had enjoyed themselves immensely.

Hereford Takes Defeat at Hands Of Canyon Eagles

The Eagles took the Hereford Whitefaces into camp last Saturday night at Hereford by running up 32 points to Hereford's 22.

The same five started the game but there were three substitutions during the third quarter of the game.

The Hereford boys tied the score during the third quarter, but with a final burst of speed the Eagles succeeded in making 10 points and holding this lead.

D. B. Pearson was high-point man. The substitutions were: Wooten for Tucker, at guard; Wiggins for Strain at center; Cleavenger for Harden at forward.

But the Hereford girls downed the Canyon girls.

The game started off unusually fast. The Canyon girls were in the lead during the first quarter, but the score was tied at the half.

The Canyon girls gained an eight-point lead in the third quarter. Miller, Jameson, Wiseman were taken out of the game on fouls. This advantage soon put Hereford in the lead, which they held for the remainder of the game. The final score was 25-31 with Hereford in possession of the ball.

This makes the third consecutive time that Hereford has been defeated in sports by the fighting Canyon Eagles.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

Will you have to start from the beginning again . . . and save and save for a home? Or will the fire insurance companies cheerfully and promptly assume all losses?

A Wonderful Help to Mothers

Dallas, Texas.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was a wonderful help and comfort to me as a tonic and nerve. I found it especially beneficial during expectancy. Dalhart Team Is Winner Of B-B Tournament

Fifteen high school basketball teams were the guests of the college last Friday and Saturday when the eighth annual tournament of District one was held in the Buffalo gym for the purpose of deciding the team that is to go to Austin for the basketball finals in May.

The preliminary rounds were begun Friday morning when Quitque defeated the Hereford team 31-27 and Canadian outpointed Hedley 28-24. These two games were followed in quick succession by Borger defeating Stratford, 42-28; Farwell over Polette, 32-24; Dalhart over Perryton, 28-23; Spearman defeating Pampa 41-24; Panhandle taking Happy, 25-13 and Borger defeating Quitque in the quarter finals 31-21, while Canadian was outpointing Dimmitt 25-23.

The semi-finals were fought out Saturday afternoon when Spearman defeated Borger 22-18 and Dalhart triumphed over Canadian by a score of 32-20.

The climax of the meet came Saturday night when the two surviving teams, Dalhart and Spearman, met to decide who was to go to Austin as representative of district one. In this game the Spearman team was doped to win because of their impressive record, but as usual the old dope bucket was upset and the Dalhart crew nosed out ahead in one of the most thrilling games of high school basketball ever witnessed in the Panhandle, Dalhart winning by a score of 25-22. At no time was the game on ice for either team, first one being ahead then the other taking the lead. Never did the scoring run more than four or five points difference between them and most all of the way the narrow margin of one point covered the advantage.

This sponsoring of the district one interscholastic meet has become a sort of tradition with the college. Not only does it give the atmosphere of hospitality to the college but it also gives the many former students an opportunity to display to their old coach and mentor, Sam D. Burton, a chance to see how far his training has helped in building up better athletics in the Panhandle, for many of these high school teams are coached by former Buffalo stars. Other events in the district one, interscholastic League will be run off over a period of time extending to April 21, when the debate teams will compete for district honors. Mr. W. E. Lockhart, director general of this district, is to be congratulated upon his efficiency in handling these affairs and much credit is due him for the smoothness with which the different contests are carried out.

Condon Has Paper For Political and Social Science Meet

S. H. Condon, head of the department of government and economics here, will attend the South-eastern Political and Social Science Association meet at Oklahoma City, April 3 and 4. While there, the association will be the guest of the University of Oklahoma at Norman.

At the meeting Mr. Condon will read a paper on "Reapportionment," which will deal with the assignment of the members of the house of representatives based on the 1930 census. Congress failed to act on the 1920 census, and for twenty years the states have gone without new assignments. Incidentally if the 1930 census is acted upon, Texas will be given three new congressmen.

LAST PLAY OF SEASON WILL BE THURSDAY

CHILDREN'S THEATER CLOSES WITH "ALADDIN AND THE WONDERFUL LAMP"

Ending the 1930-31 Children's Theater season, and eighth of the plays presented by the company, "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" will be given in the auditorium of the Education building Thursday afternoon, beginning promptly at 3:45 o'clock.

Invitations to many outside school groups have been issued by C. W. Batchelder, director, and a large attendance of these is expected. The Amarillo Little Theater group will also be present at the production. The Little Theater is vitally interested in the work being done here by the Children's Theater Company, as the objects and activities of the two organizations are very similar.

"Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" is easily the most outstanding of the performances given by the theater this year. The play is particularly difficult to dramatize and produce, due to the magical and mystical elements involved in the plot. It is a Chinese play, and has its setting in China. Robert Hunt is student director of the performance for Thursday.

This play will close the season for the Children's Theater for this year. The Children's Theater was organized by C. W. Batchelder three years ago, and has been carrying on ever since. Plans for next year's season are being begun now.

From an esteemed Buffalo contemporary:

"A bottle of water collected from the seven seas and two canals, in the hands of Mrs. Herbert Hoover, christened the vessel as she gracefully glided down the ways into the James River."

We've known right along that Mrs. Hoover was a busy woman, but we never dreamed her hands were as full as all that, and we do wish we could have been there. It must have been thrilling to see the First Lady glide gracefully down the ways into the James river.—Buffalo Evening News.

Young People's Society—Everyone is invited. Tea and social hour at 6:15. Mrs. Smith will sing.—St. Louis church program.

In Appreciation—I wish to thank the man who voted for me for constable at the village election Tuesday.

I shall endeavor to discharge the duties of this office to the satisfaction of this gentleman—Claus Swanson, constable.—Big Fork (Minn.) paper.

Mrs. — was brought home from Good Samaritan Hospital, Sandusky, Tuesday. She recently submitted to an operation for the removal of a humor.—Vermillion (Ohio) paper.

BLISSFUL IGNORANCE

His uncle was giving him a lecture. "You modern boys want too much," he said. "Do you know what I was getting when I married your aunt?" "No," replied the nephew, "and I'll bet you didn't either."

YOU PAY FOR QUALITY GAS

Be SURE You Are Getting It . . .

Local gas prices are about standard . . . yet the man who pays for good gas and gets inferior pays MORE in the long run. Poor gas leaves a deposit of carbon on cylinder walls and valves that means eventual costly repairs. Avoid this frequent repair expense by buying a better, Drier gas. Though it costs no more, wise car owners will tell you that Conoco Gas means smoother performance.

Buffaloes—

a cross between a football game and an old-fashioned gang fight. Evidently Commerce decided that if they couldn't win legitimately that the thing left for them to do was to "rough" it out and their efforts were violent if not productive of results. Three Buffaloes were forced out of the line-up via the foul route while Commerce lost a couple themselves doing for these three. The only department of the game in which Commerce even equaled the Thundering Herd was in the number of fouls assessed, some 18 being totaled on the Buffaloes ledger while Commerce was making 24 mistakes. The three reserves for the Buffs, Richards, Fitzgerald and Monroe, showed some high-speed defensive work though the Lions opened up a last-minute desperate offense that netted them a few points—too few by far to win them the game.

This game leaves the Buffs with a two to one chance to win the T. I. A. A. basketball flag for the fifth time in nine years, and instead of having a so-called outside chance they have a fair 50-50 chance to cop the flag. From the work turned in by the Commerce crew Tuesday night, the Buffs need not have too hard a job even though they do have to play the remaining game or games in the enemy's own camp.

W. T. Faculty Answer Many Service Calls

Members of the College faculty are finding themselves unusually busy, with many calls for services off the campus at this time. Prof. T. M. Moore and a senior student will conduct a stock judging contest at White Deer this week-end. Prof. Phillips is addressing the Father-Son banquet at Pampa tonight.

Mr. D. A. Shirley and Mr. L. F. Sheffy were speakers at an ex-student banquet at Plainview Monday night. Mrs. T. V. Reeves was speaker at the guest-day program at the Friona Woman's club on Wednesday. Mr. Shirley will be the main speaker at the Lloyd Green Allen Scholarship society banquet at Amarillo Saturday night.

President J. A. Hill is in Austin this week in the interest of summer school and other appropriations for the college.

With the advance of spring the calls for special services increase each week. Members of the faculty judge at local and county inter-scholastic meets, address clubs and make many commencement trips during the last week of the long session.

Plans For League Meet Are Complete

W. E. Lockhart, director-general of the Interscholastic League, District No. 1, has announced completion of plans for the 1931 meet to be held in Canyon, April 24 and 25. Under the direction of Mr. Lockhart, all faculty members of the college will be used as judges in the various events, assisted by several members of the senior class. Programs will be mailed out during the first week in April though the first events, that of the judging of the one-act plays, will be held March 27 and 28, and the basketball tournaments will be played February 20 and 21.

The following have been appointed as directors of the various events: Mr. W. W. Lee, boys tennis; Mrs. Wallace O'Keefe, girls tennis; S. D. Burton and college track team, athletic and field events for boys; H. H. Finch, superintendent of schools, Dalhart, will have charge of senior declamation, E. L. Hunter, Amarillo, will be in charge of declamation for rural schools; C. W. Batchelder will have charge of all debate; Miss Ada V. Clark, music memory contests; C. R. E. Weaver, superintendent of schools at Silverton, will be in charge of extemporaneous speech contests; T. M. Moore, chairman of the committee on securing rooms. The winners of these contests will go to Austin for the finals which will be held May 7, 8 and 9.

ing for the establishment of a public utilities commission.

Name Selected

Name of the organization was decided as the West Texas Municipal association, predicated in the theory that no private interest shall come before or in conflict with the rights of the people.

Purpose of the organization, as outlined in Article 1, shall be to act as a unit in opposing unfair legislation, unfair utility rates and to seek needed legislation and otherwise function to preserve, protect and forward the best, rightful interests in the citizens of the municipal members. It shall not be political, and shall have no paid officers.

Any mayor, city manager, city councilman, or alderman may be a member of the association whose municipality is one of the co-operating group composing this organization. The unit of membership shall be the city, and each city shall have but one vote. In the event extra monies are required above the $25 initial fee, assessments are to be made on member towns, proportionate to population, on condition that such cities agree to such assessments, either through the medium of a general meeting or upon written statement.

Set Meeting Date

Regular annual meetings shall be held the second Tuesday in May at a place set by the executive committee.

The executive committee of the association shall act in all minor matters, and all matters of mere detail when the calling of a general meeting, or mail balloting is unwarranted but in no case shall the executive committee have the power to act for the body in any matter upon which may entail additional taxation, or involve the association in any extraordinary expenditures. In any case where extraordinary expenditures are involved, or where legislation may be sought requiring additional taxes upon the people, either a general meeting or a mail ballot must be conducted to pledge to action or result in action by the association. A two-thirds majority of all cities voting shall be necessary to any action.

Other recommendations approved by the organization in addition to that pertaining to obtaining of competition to the gas companies include the following:

Would Require Report

"1. That all cities in this section require the gas company serving them to file immediately annual report, if they have not already done so, as required by law. If reports are not on file for the years since the company constructed the system, these also should be secured. Copies of these reports should be mailed to the executive committee.

"2. Copies of annual reports by years for the last five years, including 1930 should be secured from the pipeline company serving the cities in this district. These probably will have to be secured from the railroad commission at Austin. It would be better if they could be secured from the office of the pipeline company. This information should be placed in the hands of the committee also.

"3. All cities should send copies of their franchises to the committee at the earliest possible date.

"4. It has been found that pipeline companies are paying an average of one to six cents per thousand cubic feet for gas at the wells and are receiving as high as fifty cents at the city gates. Consequently it is suggested that negotiations be entered into through this organization with gas pipeline company officials, that a whole-sale rate at the city gate be made not to exceed 20 cents per thousand cubic feet as the cost of transporting gas to the various cities in this area has been found should not exceed six cents to 15 cents.

Await House Action

"5. In view of the fact that the legislature is now in session and legislation is being considered to the problems now being considered by the organization and since such legislation shall probably be disposed of within the next 60 days, it is suggested that no court action be taken by the cities until final disposition of such legislation.

"6. It is also suggested that this body support the bill amending corporation laws so that gas pipeline companies cannot own gas producing properties."

INTER-SCHOLASTIC LEAGUE TO BE HELD LATE IN MARCH

The Randall County Interscholastic league meet will be held on the last available date in March. The Randall county school fair will be held at the same time.

Member schools are asked to submit their entries to the director-general of this county, Mrs. Hayes, Route 2, Amarillo, Texas, care of Frank Gruner. This must be done before March 15.

There will be a meeting of the directors at 10 o'clock on the morning of March 20 in the regular assembly room at the courthouse. All directors are urged to be present.
